KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS TO USE EVERY POSSIBLE MEANS TO HAVE ONE BIG TIME

If it isn't your father, brother or steady who is a member of the Tropico Lodge, Knights of Pythias, then it is a cousin or uncle who does. Directly or indirectly every family in Tropico is interested in Visor lodge and when Visor lodge says they are going to hold a carnival it means that Tropico is going to hold a carnival.

Visor lodge has a remarkable record and is well known all over the county, Southern California and the state as a live lodge, and every other lodge knows that when Visor starts anything they carry it through according to program.

So sure are they of this that they are coming to Tropico on Thursday, June 24, to help celebrate. Los Angeles County will send large delegations to Tropico on this day.

There will be two big Pythian bands which will furnish music. The Uniform Rank from Los Angeles will be here to drill; the famous patrol from the Los Angeles D. O. K. K. lodge will give an exhibition; the Los Angeles Pythian Sisters will attend and the Glendale Tropico Elks will have a part in the program.

The wonderful motion picture masterpiece, "Damon and Pythias," will be shown at the Star theatre.

The contract for decorating and illuminating the streets has been let and besides a profusion of flags, bunting and festoons, San Fernando road from Central avenue to Tropico avenue will be as light as day from the wonderful lighting system to be installed for the occasion.

At dinner time on Thursday, June 24, a whopping big chicken dinner will be served in the hall.

The evening will be spent in drills, street dancing and a general all around good, big, noisy time. Horns, rattlers, confetti battles, etc. Aside from this the street will be alive with concessions, "hot dogs," fat girls, snake charmers, strong men, the tattooed Venus, skeletons, etc. Enough fun to go around and then some.

Thousands of visitors will be with us and every effort will be made to show them the time of their lives.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEET IN REGULAR WEEKLY SESSION

All members present.

S. P. Veselich, representing the Glendale-Los Angeles Boulevard Association, appeared and asked that the city of Tropico appropriate $50 to the committee for promotion expenses to further the project of building a bridge across the Los Angeles river and opening of Brand boulevard. Upon motion it was moved to allow the $50, provided that Glendale gave a like amount. Mr. Veselich stated that the Los Angeles City Council and County Supervisors would favor the idea and that progress had been made to such an extent that the project would rapidly develop.

The City Attorney reported receipt of blue prints and description of proposed easement over tracks for opening of Brand boulevard across the Southern Pacific tracks. Referred to City Engineer.

He reported that on June 2 Magdalena Myers was appointed administratrix of the estate of P. S. Myers and gave bond. She had been served and default would be entered in ten days if she failed to appear.

The City Engineer reported that Peter Ferry would commence work again in a few days on Palmer avenue.

The Street Superintendent was instructed to enforce the ordinance regulating the trimming of trees.

The Health Officer reported favorably on applications of F. E. Simons and Coyman & Morgan to sell milk. He suggested that permit to sell fireworks be granted, excepting cannon firecrackers, toy pistols and caps, bombs, canes, blank cartridges.

Upon motion a permit to do street work by private contract was granted the Forest Lawn Cemetery Association.

An ordinance, changing the time and place of the trustees' meetings was read for third time.

I wish to express my thanks to the fire boys and citizens who so nobly aided me in saving my property last Monday morning when the fire occurred.

AL VAULET.

HERE'S WHAT YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR A LIST OF THE CANDIDATES IN OUR CONTEST

The big voting campaign of the Tropico Sentinel and Glendale Press is under way. The following list of candidates' names indicates the great amount of interest the announcement of the race has occasioned. The management of the campaign is truly gratified by the early interest aroused. A campaign that will team with interest right up until the very last minute is assured.

Scan the list of candidates over carefully. Probably your name is there. If so it speaks the fact that you have friends and willing supporters who will see you to a successful finish. If your name is not in the list you should get in touch with the campaign manager, Mr. Otis, by phone or personal call, at the office of the Tropico Sentinel, and he will gladly give you all the information you desire and supply you with necessary subscription books.

Now is the time to enter the race, for an early start means a goodly advantage. Clip the nomination coupon from this issue of the paper and fill in the name of yourself or that of a friend. It means an opportunity that will not come your way again for a good, long time.

Take advantage of the encouragement coupon. Clip it out and drop it in the ballot box together with the first yearly subscription you obtain, price one dollar, and you will have 20,000 votes to your credit over and above the amount of votes listed in the regular schedule.

Beginning in the next issue of this paper and in each succeeding issue the names and the number of votes cast for each candidate will be published. Get in the habit of reading the list each week, and keep in touch with the race. You'll find it interesting.

Some one is going to win a splendid Chevrolet automobile for very little effort. Some one else will receive a scholarship—in fact, several people will. There will be tours to both the San Francisco and San Diego Expositions awarded. There will be some one who will receive a handsome 25-year gold watch, and each of these people will win his or her award for less effort than they ever will again.

You might just as well be one of these people. It all lies with yourself. Just let your friends know that you are in to win and they will see you through. But remember that an early start is half the battle. Get in the race right now. The sooner your friends know you are in the race the sooner they will come to your assistance.

The ballot box for the Glendale district is located at the office of the Glendale Press. The ballot box for the Tropico district is located at the Tropico Pharmacy. Drop your coupons and subscription ballots in the ballot box for the district in which you are located.

You will note that more prizes have been added to the list printed last week. Watch the list grow. More prizes will be added from time to time.

This is strictly a competitive campaign, and one in which no element of chance enters. Only work, personal effort and perseverance will win.

Be sure and read the advertisement on another page of this paper. It contains much information of value to candidates and their friends.

$10,000.00 PRIZE OPERA TO BE PRODUCED IN LOS ANGELES

The elat attached to the production of a grand opera has up to the present been afforded only three cities in this country—New York, Chicago and Boston. On July 1 to 10 the name of Los Angeles will be added when "Fairyland," the $10,000 prize opera, will be produced at the Auditorium.

When one contemplates the enormity of the task undertaken by the Los Angeles branch of the American Federation of Music Clubs, under whose personal patronage this production will be made, one marvels at the energy displayed.

The opera was written by Horatio W. Parker, dean of music at Yale university. This is not the first prize won by this scholarly gentleman, his "Mona" securing to him the prize offered by the Metropolitan three years ago for the best opera written by an American, his "Star Song" cantata winning the Paderewski prize in 1901.

The opera is written in three acts, within the interval of a year and a day, presumably about the thirteenth century, central Europe being the locale. It is allegorical in motif, the action taking place in the "Valley of the Shadows," also called the world, with the exception of the third and first acts, where a transformation scene takes us to Fairyland.

In connection with the scenery and lighting much could be written; the plan has been entirely conceived by the well known artist, Robert Bruntton of this city and promises to be the most gratifying piece of work, both in point of execution and actual beauty, which has ever been given a grand opera outside of New York.

The costumes were patterned under the personal supervision of Mr. Parker, although finished in this city, and for principals, chorus and ballet are individual and beautiful to a degree. The ballet will be one of the rare treats of the season, being under the direction of that eminent little ballerina, Albertina Rasch, whose exquisite work at the Century Opera House last season was commented on all over the world.

The orchestra will be a complete symphony organization of one hundred men, under the able direction of Alfred Hertz, for thirteen years Wagnerian conductor at the Metropolitan. Mr. Hertz came here at the close of the Metropolitan season and for the past five weeks has been directing the rehearsals of both chorus and orchestra. He has conducted opera in all the principal cities of Europe, and with his long stay at the Metropolitan is acknowledged as one of the most eminent of the modern conductors.

There are five principals in the opera; each artist has been selected after careful thought and consideration as to his individual ability. Marcella Craft, who will create the part of Rosamund, is already well known

EDWARD H. WESTON IS ACCORDED MERITED ARTICLE IN ISSUE OF 'PORTRAIT'

The following extract from a current issue of "Portrait," a magazine devoted to Art-in-Portraiture, bespeaks the growing popularity of Tropico's artist, Edward H. Weston:

To establish a studio in a little city of less than two thousand inhabitants seems foolish; when that place is only a twenty minutes' ride from Los Angeles the idea becomes ridiculous, but when one learns that the studio for four years did not even have the convenience of a street in front of it, the limit seems to have been reached.

Four years ago Edward Henry Weston started the studio just described, in Tropico, California, his first venture as a professional portrait photographer.

Today he takes great satisfaction in knowing that people have found him, despite his seemingly obscure location, a large portion of his patronage coming from Los Angeles, Pasadena and neighboring cities, a fact which proves that his work must possess an individuality and quality out of the ordinary.

During the year 1914 Mr. Weston was awarded salon honors at the national convention of the Photographers' Association of America, and the grand prize at the Northwestern Photographers' Association convention. His exhibit at the London salon received high praise in the London papers. Mr. Bertram Park, the secretary, choosing his group of pictures as being the best in the entire salon.

The "Child's Study in Gray" was a full page reproduction of little Miss Marjorie Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Green of Tropico. On the cover of this magazine was a picture of Mr. Weston.

With the exception of laying the sidewalk the concrete bridge on Boynton street, just south of Moore avenue, has been completed. At this time it is in such a condition as to permit passage over it of vehicles of all kinds. The residents in general on the street are well pleased with the work. The work of improving the south end of Boynton street is rapidly progressing. Up to the present time the grading work has been finished. The forms for the sidewalk have been laid and it is possible that by the end of the week the cement of the sidewalks will have been run. The work on East Cypress street is also progressing nicely and within a few days the concrete bridge which is spanning the wash at its intersection with this street will have been made passable.

Some of the local fire heroes are deeply incensed over the "Glendale News" story of how the local boys lost control of the fire which couldn't spread for the reason that it was hemmed in by a cement wall on one side and a galvanized one on the other.

While the Glendale boys and the local force are always willing to co-operate in the matter of fire fighting they like to have the honors divided evenly and dislike to read about their inefficiency, lack of pressure, shortness of hose, plugged nozzles and extinguishers filled with distillate.

Still, the boys who fight fires forget that fires furnish material for fiction. And, if someone on the "Glendale News" got excited and wished to make a fiction story of the material at hand the local chaps shouldn't object.

Thirty years ago fires and acts of heroism were presented at the 10c-20c-30c show houses, but the melodramas of those days are gone and newspapers have taken up the work of picturing "Maud in the Burning Sawmill" and "Leaping Through the Flames Into the Arms of One of the Finest."

One of the boys says: "It isn't right to arouse feelings between two communities or between two fire forces that are so friendly as the Glendale and Tropico firemen. Besides, when that one house which represents the whole of Glendale on the "News" front page gets to burning we will reciprocate and help put it out before the awful chain of mountains behind it catch fire from the sparks of the one-house conflagration."

Practically the whole Tropico staff will be at the fire when that one house starts to burn—Chief Gould and Messrs. Fairfield, Danner, Lovell, Moniot, Ripley, Frank, Jones brothers, Rich, La Fontaine, Hill, Jennings. And we will all be disappointed if we do not see the reflection quiver against the mountain of if we are not called at 1:40 so we can be there the next afternoon, or before the last ember is extinguished. We want our local paper to detract from the work of the Glendale boys either. All we will want will be the fun we get out of it. That's all we belong to the department for anyway and we like to split the fun with our neighbors. We are duty bound to call one another when there is a fire—it is fireman ethics.

Fires are put out with chemicals and water. Friendships are destroyed with mud and things."

The Sentinel suggests that the two departments consolidate and then there won't be any feelings aroused when the credit falls on all concerned.

DEVERIAN BUILDING IS TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN

Fire of an unknown origin completely destroyed the three business rooms on San Fernando road, owned by Mr. Deverian of Pasadena, occupied by Al Valet, barber, and John Gamble, Mission restaurant, at 2 a.m., last Monday. The loss is estimated at nearly $3,000, partially covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered by Japanese from across the street, who notified people sleeping in the rear of the restaurant, who escaped barely in time to save themselves from the flames, which had started in the front of the restaurant and were rapidly working to all parts of the building. They in turn gave the alarm and in seven minutes after receiving the call the fire truck was on the job with two streams of water playing on the flames.

Glendale responded to lend her assistance in case of need, which was highly appreciated by the Tropico boys.

With the streams of water upon the flames the work of extinguishing the fire was of short duration. Fortunately there was but little wind and the buildings adjoining were saved with but little loss.

The property owners adjoining, and in fact every citizen, were proud of the fire boys' work, and the money expended upon the fire equipment was more than repaid at this time.

Miss Nellie Huntington Gere, head of Fine Arts Department of the State Normal School, and Miss Helen Clarke Chandler, a well known artist, visited the Weston studio recently. Miss Gere invited Mr. Weston to exhibit his work this coming fall in the Fine Arts building.

It is not easy to write about the dreadful war between the north and the south. We press our breasts against a thorn when we do. It is often said that it is still too early to write the true story of our civil war. It will soon be too late. We should not shrink from recording what we know to be true. Thus only will a full history of American courage and fidelity be preserved, for all were Americans. The last time I visited Petersburg I drove out to her battlefields. Nature had hidden the scars with beauty. The seeds of the field daisy had been scattered wherever the Federal forces had been encamped, and they had whitened the fields and covered the graves by the wayside. Nature had not forgotten these lonely, unmarked graves.—Mrs. Roger A. Pryor.

BOY SCOUTS PREPARE AND SERVE BANQUET SUPPER TO GUESTS

The Tropico Boy Scouts entertained with a banquet at the Presbyterian Church parlors last Saturday evening.

The invitations were issued to business men of Tropico and the purpose was to organize a camp council. Owing to unforeseen things the attendance was small and it was decided to hold another meeting soon and make an effort to secure a larger attendance.

D. W. Pollard, scout executive, and lately from a campaign in Chicago, addressed those present upon the good that is being accomplished in the Boy Scout movement, which was highly appreciated.

The object of forming a Scout Council in Tropico is for the purpose of the troop having some sort of a head to call upon in case of disagreement and details of work. It is a matter that should be taken up by all who have been invited to serve upon this committee and every one should help to the best of their ability to foster the Boy Scout movement in Tropico.

The boys are enthusiastic in their work and with the scout training are able to cope with the problems which will confront them at manhood.

The dinner was prepared by the boys entirely, except for supervision, and those who attended showed their appreciation by the way in which the good things disappeared.

We might line up the kaisers, czars, and kings and count "eenie meenie, minee, me" to see who started it.

You haven't heard of any of the Russians in this country trying to get back home, have you?

Bits of Sentiment For Memorial Day

A VETERAN of the war is dearer and nearer even than the flag. He is a living flag, starred and scarred.—O'Reilly. Let the national flag float over every schoolhouse in the country and the exercises be such as shall impress upon our youth the patriotic duties of American citizens.—Benjamin Harrison. Death never comes too soon, if necessary, in defense of the liberties of our country.—Story. I only regret that I have but one life to give for my country.—Nathan Hale. The nation's holy of holies is about the resting place of her soldier dead.—Green.

HOME CAMP MEETING SERVICES TO CLOSE SUNDAY EVENING. MUCH GOOD ACCOMPLISHED

Mr. Haydock, Singing Evangelist

The home camp meeting services being held at the Methodist church, are attracting many visitors from out of the city. Last Tuesday some 150 visitors were served with lunch by the ladies in the hall of the church.

Dr. Joseph Smith is a bible student of national fame, while the singer, Mr.
Haydock, leaves a lasting impression wherever he is.

Miss Maude Allen, of London, Eng., and a world-famous classic dancer,
visited the Weston studio last week.
Mr. Weston took some remarkable portraits of Miss Allen, which will be used in her exhibit work in London,
the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Goodrich, and son and daughter, Will and Grace, arrived from their home in Salt Lake City the first of the week, and are now visiting at the home of Mr. Goodrich's brother, H. B. Goodrich, 540 N. Central avenue.
Mr. Goodrich and son motored from Salt Lake City in their seven-passenger Buick, while Mrs. Goodrich and daughter came over by rail. They are perfectly delighted with the good roads of Southern California, as well as its beautiful scenery and climate, and cannot speak in too high terms of Tropic and its possibilities.

Dr. Joseph Marple who, for the past eight months, has been taking additional surgical work in the eastern part of this country and in Europe, has returned to his home at this place. While in London Dr. Marple took special work in general and orthopedic surgery in the various London hospitals.
Special hospital courses were taken in Boston with the Harvard University Graduate School in general and orthopedic surgery and obstetrics in Boston Hospitals. The "Twilight Sleep" method of anesthesia was observed and studied, while the Mayo Brothers Clinic, Rochester, Minn., was also attended.

Last Thursday afternoon the Cerri-tos avenue branch of the Parent-Teachers' Association met at the school and were entertained by the teachers. This being the last meeting of the year reports were read and officers for ensuing year elected.

Mark Keppel gave an address upon "Peace" and the school chorus, under direction of Miss Weatherby, sang peace songs. Refreshments were served by the teachers in the sewing room.

During the program Mrs. Ella Richardson gave a talk and presented Mrs.
McClure, the retiring principal, with a beautiful cut glass bowl and vase, to which Mrs. McClure responded.

Last Sunday afternoon Tropic took the honors from the Hippodromes to the tune of 7 to 3. The boys are now getting down to shape and a long list of wins is expected this season. Next Sunday the boys will play the Native Sons and another large crowd of fans are expected to attend and root the boys to victory. The line-up was as follows:

Tropic—Gabaig, Flower, Sissney,
Markwith, Scofield, Bradford, Spear, O'Conner, Long.
Hippodrome—Homand, Stewart,
Windettea, Brown, Clark, Kramer,
Thomas, Weiser, Goodwin.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Joseph Smith will occupy the Methodist pulpit while Mr. Smith will be at the Presbyterian church. At both churches there will be Sunday school services.
In the afternoon, at the Methodist church, there will be a mass meeting.
In the evening a Union Young People's meeting and closing services.
Mr. Smith and Mr. Haydock presiding.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB AT G. A. R. HALL

The Tropic Thursday Afternoon Club held their regular meeting at the G. A. R. hall last Thursday afternoon.
At the business meeting held before the program Mrs. Charles A. Barker was elected president and Miss Cora Hickman vice president; Mrs. Leigh Bancroft, Miss Leita Hibben and Mrs.
E. F. Tholen, trustees.

The June 17 meeting, which will close the club's activities for the summer, will also be held at the G. A. R.
hall, at which time a 25-cent banquet will be given and invitations extended to all club members to invite friends.
In such case it is requested that the chairman of hospitality committee, Mrs. J. H. Smith, be notified.

Mrs. A. J. Barton, engaged in rescue work at the county jail, delivered an address that was highly appreciated.
She was responded to by Mrs. Wanno
Woods and Mrs. Ella Richardson. Dr.
Jessie Russell gave a resume of legislation pertaining to women. Mrs. A.
J. Van Wie rendered two solos, accompanied by Mrs. W. M. Crawford.

After the program refreshments were served in the banquet hall by the hostesses, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, Mrs. Edward H. Weston, Mrs. C. M. Turck and Miss Elsie Anderson.

10,000.00 PRIZE OPERA

out here, while William Wade Hinshaw, the baritone, is one of the most popular of the American operatic singers. Kathleen Howard, contralto, is another American of whom we may be justly proud, while Ralph Errol and Albert Reiss, the tenors, are favorites
both East and West.

From every standpoint—cast, conductor, orchestra, scenery and costuming—this production promises to be one of rare beauty and completeness. It will be worthy of the cooperation and hearty financial support of every lover of music, patron of fine arts, teacher and pupil. In connection with this it will be well to note also that during the production of the opera composers from all over the United States will be assembled, singers and instrumentalists of note, presenting programs of extraordinary merit.

For the opera and the various programs a season ticket will be sold at a very reasonable price. Reservations accompanied by check, addressed to L. E. Behymer, 705 Auditorium building, Los Angeles, will be filled in order of receipt.
